BRINED PORK CHOP

QUINOA SALAD

BRUSSELS SPROUTS

APPLE CHUTNEY

DRINK PAIRING

A Grenache-based red wine with a little acidity will stand up nicely with these savory vegetables and rich pork. A sturdy stout beer will be terrific with this dish.

INSTRUCTIONS

- 1 Preheat oven to 400 degrees F. Rinse Brussels sprouts; remove any wilted outer leaves, and trim stem ends. Toss sprouts with olive oil, season with salt and pepper, and place on a baking sheet.
- 2 Roast sprouts in the preheated oven until tender when pierced with a fork, about 10 minutes.
- 3 Meanwhile, season pork chops with salt and ground black pepper on both sides.
- 4 Heat a skillet over medium high heat; swirl in a small amount of olive oil. Place pork chops in a single layer in skillet, and cook until browned on one side, about 3 minutes. Turn, cook until browned on the other side; continue cooking until juices run clear and internal temperature reads 145 degrees F when measured with an instant read thermometer, about 6 minutes more.
- 5 Place pork chops on individual serving plates, top with apple chutney, and serve with roasted sprouts and quinoa salad.

DRINK PAIRING

A white wine with high acidity and good structure, like dry riesling, pairs well with Thai food. Same rules apply for beer. Go for a lighter IPA or ESB.
