

PASTURE AND PLENTY

FEBRUARY 20, 2023 | OMNIVORE

HOORAY, IT'S MONDAY!

And a GREAT Monday, at that! We have a great lineup this week with: a savory breakfast for dinner farro and feta frittata with mixed greens and a balsamic vinaigrette; our fan-fave gumbo, just in time for Mardi Gras; and comforting chicken cacciatore over creamy polenta! And, let us know what you think about the polenta! La Cosecha just debuted a new product – stone ground hominy grits – that we used for it and we're super excited to share it with you!

- 1 Season egg mix with salt and pepper. In a bowl, mix together the farro mix and egg mixture.
- 2 Heat a skillet, preferably non-stick, over medium-high heat: meal kits for 1, should use a 6"-8" pan; meal kits for 2 should use a 8"-10" pan; and meal kits for 4 should use a 10"-12" pan. Hold your hand above it; it should feel hot. Add a splash of olive oil and swirl it around to coat the pan. Once the oil is rippling and hot, scrape in egg and farro salad mixture; distributing eggs and filling evenly over surface.
- 3 After the bottom layer of egg has set, about 1-2 minutes, turn heat down to very low, cover (use a pizza pan if you don't have a lid that will fit your skillet), and cook 10 minutes, shaking pan gently every once in a while. From time to time remove lid and loosen the bottom of the frittata with a spatula, tilting the pan, so that more egg runs underneath.
- 4 Meanwhile, heat broiler. Once the entire frittata is mostly set and firm, except in the center, uncover pan and place under the broiler, not too close to the heat. Broil for 1 to 3 minutes, watching very carefully to make sure top doesn't burn (it should brown slightly and puff under the broiler). Remove from heat, shake the pan to make sure the frittata isn't sticking, and allow it to cool for at least 5 minutes and for up to 15.
- 5 While the frittata is cooling, toss the mixed greens with balsamic vinaigrette (to taste).
- 6 To serve, loosen edges of the frittata with a wooden or heat-proof rubber spatula. Carefully slide frittata from pan onto a large round plate or cutting board; cut into wedges. Plate frittata slices with greens alongside! Enjoy!
