GRILLING INSTRUCTIONS

- 1 Preheat grill for medium-high heat. While the grill is preheating, get your prep on! First, wash and dry all the dragon tongue beans. Trim ends of beans, place in a bowl, then season with salt, pepper, and a splash of olive oil. Next, remove your chicken from its packaging and coat it with about half of the miso honey marinade (you'll want to reserve half to use as a sauce on the final dish).
- 2 Carefully place your beans in a grill basket. If you don't have a grill basket, shape a large piece of foil into the shape of a box, poke holes in it (to allow the heat and smoke to come through) and place it on the grill; add your veggies to your foil basket. Cook the veg until well-caramelized and slightly softened. Remove from grill and place back in your bowl. Taste for seasoning and add salt and pepper, if needed.
- 3 At the same time, place chicken on the grill, and sear the first side until browned with defined grill marks, about 4 to 6 minutes. Flip and cook another 4 to 6 minutes. Keep flipping and cook chicken until it reaches an internal temperature of 165°F* (when measured with an instant thermometer). Transfer chicken to a cutting board, loosely cover with foil, and allow to rest. Just before serving, slice the chicken across the grain, into about 1/4-inch thick slices.
- 4 While grilling the chicken, give your cucumber salad a stir to redistribute the dressing. You'll also want to reheat your rice in a small saucepan over low heat until heated through, about 5 minutes. Stir occasionally and add a splash of water or oil as needed to prevent sticking.
- 5 To plate, place your rice on the plate, with the cucumber salad and grilled beans alongside. Top with the grilled chicken. Drizzle the reserved miso-honey marinade over it all. Enjoy!

ALTERNATE INSTRUCTIONS

Follow instructions above, but instead of using a grill, preheat oven to 425°F. Toss veg onto a sheet pan and roast for 10 to 15 minutes, stirring halfway through. Beans should be charred and slightly softened. Meanwhile, heat a small amount of olive oil in a skillet over medium-high heat. Place chicken thighs in skillet and cook, turning occasionally, until internal temperature (measured with an instant thermometer) reads 165°F.*
