

PASTURE AND PLENTY

APRIL 22, 2024 | OMNIVORE

HOORAY, IT'S MONDAY!

Get excited for a week of fun flavors! Think: a chimichurri grill kit with pork chops, sweet potatoes and a Mediterranean quinoa salad; a classic tomato basil soup and grilled cheese sammies with toum (a punchy sauce made with garlic, lemon juice, salt and oil); and then a rustic Italian chicken cacciatore over creamy polenta. And, best of all, we have Earth Day Dirt Cups – thick, creamy dark chocolate pudding with a crumbly cookie topping – coming your way!

GRILLING INSTRUCTIONS

- 1 Set up your grill for dual-zone cooking. On a gas/electric grill: turn half your burners/elements on high — direct heat — and half on low — indirect heat. On a charcoal grill: get your coals good and white and, instead of spreading them evenly over the lower grate, bank all the coals to one side of the grill to create your high direct heat zone (and the the side with no coals is your indirect low heat zone).
- 2 While grill is preheating, prep your sweet potatoes: wash and scrub the potatoes; cut lengthwise into 1/2-inch thick wedges; place the potato wedges in a large bowl and toss with olive oil; season with salt and pepper. Then, take your pork chops out and season with salt and pepper, as well as a thin coating of the chimichurri sauce (reserve the remainder to serve as a sauce later).
- 3 Place the sweet potato wedges on the cooler side of the grill, cooking for 4 to 7 minutes on each side or until they are tender and charred all over. Check early to be safe, every grill is different.
- 4 Meanwhile, arrange the pork chops on the hot side of the grill grates. Close the lid and grill for about 3 to 4 minutes. When the bottoms of the chops are browned, flip and close the grill again. The total cooking time will be about 6 to 8 minutes for medium (or the middle of the pork chop registers 145°F on an instant-read thermometer). Remove from the grill and let rest for about 5 minutes.
- 5 While the sweet potatoes and pork chop are grilling, give the quinoa salad a quick toss to redistribute the dressing.
- 6 Plate the quinoa salad, placing the pork chops and grilled sweet potatoes alongside. Top with the chimichurri sauce and dig in!

ALTERNATE INSTRUCTIONS

Follow instructions above, but preheat oven to 400°F. Place sweet potato wedges on a sheet pan and roast for 25 to 30 minutes, flipping halfway through, until tender and crispy around the edges. Meanwhile, heat a large skillet over medium heat, then add a splash of olive oil and the pork chops. Cook, flipping every 2 minutes, until browned on the outside and the internal temperature is 145°F, 10 to 15 minutes.

Chimichurri: Canola oil, olive oil, shallot, garlic, jalapeño, lime juice, cilantro, parsley, white wine vinegar, oregano, salt, red chile flake Quinoa Salad: Red quinoa, carrot, parsnip, spinach, parsley, chive, olive oil, salt, pepper, lemon juice Pork Chop, Sweet Potato

Contains: Pork

tomato basil soup with toum grilled cheese

Heat soup over medium heat in a saucepan, stirring occasionally, until hot, about 6 minutes.

Spread toum on the inside of each bread slice, add munster and gouda slices on top of toum and close sandwich with the toum and cheese in the middle.

Heat a skillet over medium heat; melt a tablespoon or two of butter in the pan. Place sandwich in skillet, turning to coat both sides of sandwich with melted butter. Toast until bread is golden and cheese is melted, turning once, about 3 minutes per side.

Cut sandwich in half and plate; pour soup into bowl and dinner is on!

Soup: Tomato, vegetable stock, onion, celery, carrot, fennel, leek, garlic, red wine vinegar, olive oil, basil, salt, pepper, cayenne Madison Sourdough Bread: Flour, water, salt Cheese: muenster (milk, culture, salt, enzymes, annato), smoked gouda (milk, culture, salt, enzymes) Toum: Canola oil, garlic, lemon, water, salt

Contains: Wheat, milk
