PREP & COOK TIME

75 MINUTES

IN YOUR BAG

Pizza Dough

Five Cheese Blend

Brown Butter Sage Cream Sauce

Kale

Roasted Squash

Caramelized Onions

PAIR WITH

the rich and round Iconic Sidekick Chardonnay or the toasty, malty Oktoberfest Märzen Lager from Potosi Brewing Co.

1. Keep dough frozen until the day you want to make the pizza and place in the refrigerator to thaw in the morning. At least one hour before baking, take dough out of refrigerator. Remove from packaging with floured hands. Meal Kits for 2 and 4 will need to split their larger dough in half into individual dough balls (one per person) and place on lightly floured surface. Cover with a kitchen towel and let rest while coming to room temperature.
2. Preheat oven to 425°F; if you have a convection setting now would be a great time to use it.
3. While the dough is coming to room temperature and the oven is preheating, rinse and dry the kale leaves. Strip kale leaves from the stems and roughly chop. Massage kale with a bit of olive oil, salt and red pepper flakes (if desired).
4. On a baking sheet, gently press down and stretch each well-floured pizza dough ball out to an 8 to 10" circle; they should be thin with slightly thicker edges.
5. Spread the cream sauce evenly on top of the dough. Layer the roasted butternut squash on top, dollop on the caramelized onions all over, scatter the cheese over everything, then lay the kale on top.
6. Bake in preheated oven until crust is golden brown, the kale is wilted and the cheese is melted, bubbling and slightly browned, too, about 12 to 15 minutes. Remove from oven.
7. Slice hot pizza with a large knife or pizza cutter and dig in!

Meanwhile, seperate leaf lettuce, wash under cold water, and then dry. Give carrot-apple salad a toss to evenly coat with dressing.

Divide chicken onto lettuce wraps. Top with apple-carrot salad and ranch dressing, or serve salad on the side. Dig in!
